

The proposed new easement is all the area in the crosshatch including part of the original of the easement in purple and the new area in white which do not conflict with the path for the drive way and house location.

This part of the original easement would come out of the easement

Drive way

House