

The Garden Club Gang

Neal Sanders

Gardening is Murder!

Come enjoy a funny and very different program from The Haddam Garden Club. We are pleased to present Neal Sanders, a noted mystery writer and speaker sharing his observations about gardening from a husband's point of view. Neal's talk is filled with humor and insight from someone who gardens less from a love of horticulture than for the love of a spouse.

Good horticultural advice is dispensed, and bad advice is debunked.

Some of what you'll learn:

- Why it is impossible to do just one thing in a garden.
- Why so much gardening information on the internet is awful
- Why you should never compute the value of labor in gardening
- Evidence that the wildlife in your garden have never seen a Disney film
- Why it requires digging three holes to plant something
- And much more....

We are excited to bring this program to our community

Wednesday, April 12 at 1:00 PM
at the Fire House
439 Saybrook Rd, Higganum.

Space is limited, so if you want to be sure there's a seat for you, please RSVP to Donna at donnabr@comcast.net no later than April 7. Coffee and dessert are included. A donation of $5 is requested for non-HGC members.

Want to learn more about the Haddam Garden Club? Visit us online at <https://www.HaddamGardenClub.org>