

Call the Tax office or the Assessor's office immediately. The Assessor's office needs to know what happened to the vehicle. Was it sold, junked or donated? They need a receipt for the vehicle and a receipt showing the plates were returned.

If this information is not available, please call them for further help.